1864	September	near Lynn, NFK	fought with a man named Gray [possibly Louis]	A prize fight for £5 took place near Lynn between Pooley Mace and Grey. Mace was declared the victor after a contest which lasted 35 minutes. [Perhaps erroneously dated, and actually referring to the 1862 incident, above.]	The Norfolk Chronicle, 19 September 1864 ; quoted in Norfolk Annals 2. 1851-1900 (Norfolk Chronicle, 1901), 138
1865	?early September	Grimstone Common, NFK	fought with a man named Rackaby	A prize fight took place on Grimstone Common between Pooley Mace and a man named Rackaby. After five rounds had been contested the police stopped hostilities and Rackaby's party declining to resume the fight the stakes were awarded to Mace.	The Norfolk Chronicle, 8 September 1865 ; quoted in Norfolk Annals 2, 150
