1785	16 July	Leicester, St. Margaret, LEI	witness to a marriage	Phœnix HEARN x, of this Parish, Brazier & a Bachelor = Sarah BUSWELL x of the same Parish & a Spinster [wit : George STEVENS x / Edw[d] NEWBERRY] License	Original register
1785	16 July passim	Holwell-mouth, near Melton Mowbray, LEI	meeting to celebrate the marriage	Leicefter, July 22. Saturday laft was married at St. Margaret's Church in this town, PHOENIX! a youth belonging to BOSWELL'S GANG OF GYPSIES, (now hutted in Humberftone-field,) to Miss BOSWELL, daughter of Mr. Bofwell, King of this fraternity. His Gypfean Majefty attended the ceremony : Charlotte Bofwell was bride-maid, and 10 or 12 of the gang likewife attended. They presented the Clergyman who performed the ceremony with 10s. 6d. and to the ringers 15s. with a good dinner and drink in great plenty. - We underftand that a marriage ceremony amongft this tribe of people is always celebrated with great merriment, and the feafting lasts for 14 days ; indeed it is impofsible to conceive a happier set of people than they appeared to be on this occafion. The confummation of the nuptial rights was intended to be in Humberftone-field ; where perhaps Phœnix and his tawny Princefs, upon a green fod, with the canopy of heaven their only covering, may tafte as much real felicity as those of a higher order in their beds of down with pillows of thorns... Phœnix's trade is that of a tinker - his wife is a dealer in palmeftry... The Gypfies have undoubtedly a form of government amongft themfelves, and to their King pay the most implicit obedience ; to this fubmiffion we may fairly attribute their apparent happiness ; - they have no falfe honour amongft them, and they look upon fhame as the moft grievous punishment in the world. - ...Phoenix' trade is that of a tinker — his wife is a dealer in palmistry... We learn that in a few days, at or near Holwell-mouth, by Melton Mowbray, there will be a general meeting of Gypsies from Leicestershire and the neighbouring counties, to celebrate the nuptials of Phoenix with the King's daughter. The Gypsies have undoubtedly a form of government amongst themselves, and to their King pay the most implicit obedience ; to this submission we may fairly attribute their apparent happiness. They have no false honour amongst them, and they look upon shame as the most grievous punishment in the world.	The Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette, 28 July 1785, 3 [additional paragraph added] The Lincoln Gazetteer, 29 July 1785, page not known [poor transcription]

NUBERRY, Richard

1830	8 May	Chesham, BKM	accused of stealing a watch	Nine Months' Imprisonment...Israel Draper, 38, for stealing a watch, the property of Elizabeth Horwood, at Chesham.	The Northampton Mercury, 24 July 1830, 4
1830	20 July	Aylesbury, BKM	at the Sessions	Richard Nuberry and Israel Draper, were indicted for having stolen a watch, the property of Elizabeth Horwood, of Aylesbury. The prosecutrix said, that on the 8th of May, at seven o'clock in the evening, hearing footsteps in her shop, she went and saw the prisoner Draper, who said he wanted a cake ; she replied she had not got one ; and he then ran away. She directly afterwards observed the dirty impression of a footstep near the mantle-piece, and missed her watch, which she valued at I5 shillings. Draper had been in the shop the day before for a loaf. In half an hour afterwards, she saw Draper in the custody of Cross. Cross said he went in search for Draper, and found him in a ditch, in Hale Leys. Nothing was found on him. Having heard that Nuberry had been offering a watch for sale, witness went after him, and stopped him in Walton. Witness took him into the White Swan, and on searching him found the watch in one of his coat pockets. Draper denied having been to the shop the second day; and that he never saw Nuberry up to that time. Nuberry said Draper was innocent ; he (Nuberry) stole the watch, which he was driven to do by distress. Mr. Lucas, a farmer, said he never knew any thing bad of Draper before. He led a rambling life. Both the prisoners were found Guilty ; and sentenced to Nine months' hard labour in the House of Correction.	The Bucks Gazette, 24 July 1830, 3

The swarthy pair, in bridal apparel, were married by banns in the parish church. Immediately after the ceremony, the party, headed by a fiddler of their race, were ushered with due honors to the White Horse inn, where dancing, wine-drinking, cake-eating, &c. were the order of the day until one o'clock, when upwards of 50 sat down to roast beef and plum pudding. - It is upwards of 36 years since an occurrence of the kind took place in this village, though the place in olden times was no stranger to such things : the King of the Gipsies, we hear, was married here.
