1868	11 July	near Abingdon, BRK	father charged with encamping		The Reading Mercury, 18 July 1868, 5
1868	13 July	Abingdon, BRK	father in magistrates court	James Hodley and Samson Hodley were brought up on the charge of sleeping by the side of the Oxford-road on Saturday last. P.C. Barson and Price took them into custody, and it was found that the horse which drew their van had strayed and was found near Oxford. The defendants said it was the first time they had committed the offence ; but the Bench considered that it was an offence which must be firmly dealt with, and sent the defendants to Reading Gaol for seven days' hard labour.	The Reading Mercury, 18 July 1868, 5
