Your privacy is important to us

At the RTFHS, we take your privacy very seriously and will always do our best to protect your personal information. We will NEVER sell or exchange your personal information with other organisations for marketing purposes.

We hold your personal information (name, address, email address, phone number and research interests) on computer and on any paper forms that you have filled in. All information is held securely. We use your information to contact you and to let you know if there are any other RTFHS members who share your research interests. Every three months we also pass your name and address to our journal printers in a secure way so they can post your RTFHS journals to you.
