1887	18 January - 20 April	Reading, BRK	in gaol		The Abingdon Herald , 30 April 1887, 6
1887	20 April	Reading, BRK	at the Assizes	James Bland , aged 48, gipsy; John Bland , 37, gipsy; James Bland, jun , 23, labourer; John Austin , 22, labourer; and Joseph Davis , 24, labourer, were charged with burglary, at Draycott Manor and East Hanney. James Bland, sen, and John Bland pleaded not guilty, the others pleading guilty. Mr. Geare prosecuted. Mr. James Robin Holmes, shopkeeper, East Hanney, proved securing his shop on the night of January 18th. When he got up in the morning he found the house had been broken into, and that articles to the value of 4l. 12s. were missing. D.S. Foster said he visited the house where the prisoners lived, in company with P.C. Smith. He searched the house, and found the timepiece and articles of clothing produced, which had been identified as the property of the prosecutor. Witness found a dark lantern in the house. P.C. Smith said that he made a search of the garden adjoining the house where the prisoners lived, and found the butter-knife produced belonging to the prosecutor. Supt. Dorvell said he examined prosecutor's premises. It did not occur to him that there were more than three persons engaged in the burglary. The Judge, in summing up, said that, if they did not think proper to convict the prisoners of burglary, they could find them guilty of receiving the goods. He pointed out that the evidence was very meagre against the prisoners. After a short deliberation the Jury acquitted both the prisoners. The men who had pleaded guilty were then brought up for judgment. His Lordship said James Bland, jun, and Austin had previously been convicted, but nothing was known against Davis before. Bland and Austin would be committed for 12 months [sic] imprisonment with hard labour, and Davis for six months' hard labour.	The Abingdon Herald , 30 April 1887, 6
