1890	27 August	Lowestoft, SFK	in magistrates court	Louis Grey was charged with assaulting Ambrose Barber, at Kirkley. There was a cross-summons. The parties are hawkers, and had a "set-to" on the beach about the regulations lately put in force on the beach by the lord of the manor. The Bench dismissed the case against Grey, but thought Barber had been guilty of a cruel assault, and he was fined £4, including costs, or one month's hard labour. - A charge against Thomas Grey of assaulting Charles Catchpole, collector of beach dues, was adjourned.
