1859	1 March	Newark, NTT	inquest held on the body of Betsy Smith	Fatal Accident from Fire. - On Tuesday morning, a child, eight years of age, named Betsy Smith, died in the Newark Hospital, from injuries received on Saturday, through her clothes catching fire. Deceased and three other children were left alone in the house of a besom seller, named Riley Birch, on Beacon-hill road. She was busy putting cinders on the fire-back, when her clothes ignited, and she would, doubtless, have been burnt to death in a few minutes had it not been for the timely help of Mrs. Cooper, who lives in another part of the same building. The child did not seem to have sustained serious injuries, and no medical advice was sent for until Sunday. On the evening of that day she became worse, and had a fit. The Dispensary surgeon then ordered her to be taken to the hospital. - An inquest was held on Tuesday evening, before R. Griffin, Esq., borough coroner, when the jury returned a verdict of "accidentally burnt to death," [sic] The coroner and jury severely reprimanded the two women who lived in the house for their neglect in leaving such young children alone.	The Lincolnshire Chronicle, and Northampton, Rutland, and Nottingham Advertiser, 4 March 1859, 5
