1852	19 September	between Launton, OXF & Marsh Gibbon, BKM	death of father-in-law	Anthony Smith, a well-known gypsey, died in his camp by the side of the road from Launton to Marsh Gibbon, on Sunday night. It appears that the deceased, who was 73 years of age, lay on his pallet as well as usual on Sunday night, and that on the following morning his aged partner on awakening found him a corpse. At the inquest held on view of the body, a verdict in accordance with the above facts was returned.	The Banbury Guardian , 23 September 1852, 3
