1835	10 June	near Corbary, NFK	encamped	On the evening of the 10th of June they had located themselves by the wayside near to a field of the prosecutor at Corbary, in this county, and it appeared by the evidence that between the hours of 9 on that evening and 4 o'clock on the following morning two horses of the prosecutor were stolen from that field....	The Times , 8 August 1835, 6
1835	11 June	near Wisbech, CAM	seized by the authorities	The prisoners and others of their party were traced as far as Wisbech on the following day, and it appeared that they had passed through several turnpike-gates in the course of the night, having with them four horses, upon which as many of their own party rode, and a horse and cart of their own. Near Wisbech (a distance of 40 miles from the prosecutor's) they were all found bivouacked by the side of the road, and the horses were feeding in a lane close by. The prosecutor and his assistants had no sooner appeared in sight than the greatest consternation was seen to prevail in the tents of the Gipsies, and several of the party succeeded in getting away, but the four prisoners were secured. One of the prisoners was watching by the grazing horses; he no sooner saw what was going on in the tent than he fled with all rapidity and hid himself in a fen ditch, where he was found more than half buried in the mud...	The Times , 8 August 1835, 6

1912	26 April	Bakewell, DBY	died	NEVER SLEPT ON A BED. CENTENARIAN GIPSY'S DEATH AT BAKEWELL. The death of Gipsy Osery Boswell took place at Bakewell Workhouse on Friday in the 100th year of his age. Gipsy Boswell and his wife, Catherine, who is 88 years of age, came from Beeley Moor, to Cowhill-lane near Bakewell, where they were accommodated with an outbuilding, and in this they lived until a week ago, when Osery was removed to the Workhouse, and Catherine went to live with friends at Matlock. They had lived in the building at Cowhill-lane without a bed for 12 months, and it is said that Gipsy Boswell never indulged in the luxury of a bed during his life, a great part of which was passed in the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham. The deceased was in receipt of an old age pension.	The Derby Daily Telegraph , 27 April 1912, 3

Several of the gipsy clan attended, and the service was of a very simple character. One of the most pathetic figures present was the octogenarian widow, who had to be supported at the grave side.	The Derby Daily Telegraph , 30 April 1912, 2

1857	23 February	Middleton Cheney, NTH	William in magistrates court, but falsely accused	At the petty sessions, at Middleton Cheney, on Monday last, William Booth, alias Colborne, of Paulerspury, described as a gipsy and chair-mender, was brought up in custody, under the following strange circumstances :- Samuel Martin, county police-constable said, "Inspector Evans told me he had see a warrant in the hands of parish-constable Morgan, of Kings Sutton, to apprehend the prisoner on a charge of arson, committed somewhere in the Brackley Division, and ordered me to apprehend the prisoner ; I did so on Saturday last, and he was then locked up at Towcester : this morning, I received him again, with orders to bring him here." On enquiry of the different police-officers and others present, such a fire had never been heard of, but it was stated that Morgan had stated it to have been several ricks at Kings Sutton. It seems that he was travelling about the country obtaining warrants from magistrates against men for supposed offences ; and, by means thereof, obtaining money from different parties, besides entertainment at public-houses, stating himself to be in pursuit of an offender, and to have exhausted him money. A warrant is out against Morgan. The prisoner Booth was of course discharged, but he had been, in due form, paraded from Towcester to Middleton Cheney, 20 miles, in handcuffs.	Jackson's Oxford Journal , 28 February 1857, 8
