1866	3 June	Long Whatton, LEI	burial of father	aged 74  Considerable excitement was created in Long Whatton, on Sunday last, by the funeral of an old gipsy organ-grinder, whose gaunt, tall figure, and peculiar intonation, will be well remembered in this neighbourhood. He was over seventy years of age, and had never slept in a house for more than fifty years. As soon as he found that he could not live much longer, he removed to the neighbourhood of Whatton, where he has a relative buried, and he was kindly allowed to encamp in a field near Piper-House, as he said he should be smothered in-doors. He died in the faith of a Christian, and is reported to have left four sons £500 a-piece.	Original register + The Leicester Chronicle and Leicestershire Mercury , 9 June 1866, 3

1869	24 March	Stourport, WOR	in magistrates court	Sylvanus Boswell and Susannah Boswell, gipsies, encamped on Hartlebury Common, were charged with stealing 15lbs. of beef, the property of E. S. Millichap, of Hartlebury. Mr. Millichap stated that on the 17th inst. Boswell came to his house and asked him to give him some beef which was hung up a tree. He told him it was not good. Boswell replied he could eat it, Mr. Millichap then said he might have a couple of pounds of it. The beef was a shoulder, and weighed from 15lbs. to 20lbs. In about a quarter of an hour afterwards Mr. Millichap went out of the house towards the tree in which it hung and found it was all gone. P.C. Madeley received information of the robbery, and went to Hartlebury Common and saw the two prisoners driving a donkey up the road with packages on its back ; he had them undone, and found the beef produced. Susannah Boswell was discharged, and Sylvanus was sentenced to one month's hard labour.	The Worcestershire Chronicle , 31 March 1869, 4

1856	7 May	Bilston, STS	married	[Sylehouse Green] Benjamin BOSWELL, 23, son of Samuel = Eliza BOSWELL, 22, daughter of Thomas  Bilston has not, perhaps, presented so excited a scene since the last colliers' riots as was witnessed on Wednesday last, on the occasion of a gipsy marriage. Readers of the works of George Burrows [sic], especially "The Gipsies in Spain," will remember that one of the peculiarities of this class is to lavish enormous expense at their marriages - an illustration of which was presented on Wednesday. The happy pair were Mr. Boswell, who led to the hymenal altar his cousin, Elvina Boswell. These gipsies are encamped near Moseley Hole, fully a mile from Bilston, and the men get a good deal of money as musicians, by playing at dances, inns, &c. The bride on the occasion wore a very handsome white Leghorn hat, trimmed with broad white ribbon, and adorned with a fine plume of feathers ; her dress was brocaded glacé satin. There were three bridesmaids, dressed in white, wearing similar hats to the bride ; and the exquisite taste with which the ladies were arrayed was the theme of general admiration. The procession walked from the gipsies' encampment to St. Leonard's Church, and attracted great attention, the crowd of attendant gazers continually increasing as it approached Bilston, so that, on reaching the town, the bridal party walked between two lines of people, who pressed so much upon them that it was necessary for the police to exert themselves to maintain order. The church was crowded with spectators. The ceremony was performed by the vicar, the Rev. H. S. Fletcher, assisted by the Rev. R. J. Heafield, of St. Luke's ; and at its close, the bells rang out a merry peal. The bridegroom invited the respectable persons present to visit the gipsies at their encampment, where a feast was provided. Several ladies and gentlemen accepted the	Original register transcript  + The Derby Mercury , 14 May 1856, 8 invitation, and found a provision of a most ample character : beef and ham was provided in abundance, and ale and wine – and the visitors drank to the happiness of the newly-married couple from silver tankards, which were not the only articles of plate at the gipsies' tent. It may be mentioned, that so great was the throng after the marriage, that the party was compelled to take refuge in an adjoining inn until the streets were less full. The bride was presented with a handsome bible by the Rev. H. S. Fletcher.

				Bilston has not, perhaps, presented so excited a scene since the last colliers' riots as was witnessed on Wednesday last, on the occasion of a gipsy marriage. Readers of the works of George Burrows [sic], especially "The Gipsies in Spain," will remember that one of the peculiarities of this class is to lavish enormous expense at their marriages - an illustration of which was presented on Wednesday. The happy pair were Mr. Boswell, who led to the hymenal altar his cousin, Elvina Boswell. These gipsies are encamped near Moseley Hole, fully a mile from Bilston, and the men get a good deal of money as musicians, by playing at dances, inns, &c. The bride on the occasion wore a very handsome white Leghorn hat, trimmed with broad white ribbon, and adorned with a fine plume of feathers ; her dress was brocaded glacé satin. There were three bridesmaids, dressed in white, wearing similar hats to the bride ; and the exquisite taste with which the ladies were arrayed was the theme of general admiration. The procession walked from the gipsies' encampment to St. Leonard's Church, and attracted great attention, the crowd of attendant gazers continually increasing as it approached Bilston, so that, on reaching the town, the bridal party walked between two lines of people, who pressed so much upon them that it was necessary for the police to exert themselves to maintain order. The church was crowded with spectators. The ceremony was performed by the vicar, the Rev. H. S. Fletcher, assisted by the Rev. R. J. Heafield, of St. Luke's ; and at its close, the bells rang out a merry peal. The bridegroom invited the respectable persons present to visit the gipsies at their encampment, where a feast was provided. Several ladies and gentlemen accepted the invitation, and found a provision of a most ample character : beef and ham was provided in abundance, and ale and wine - and the visitors drank to the happiness of	+ The Derby Mercury , 14 May 1856, 8 the newly-married couple from silver tankards, which were not the only articles of plate at the gipsies' tent. It may be mentioned, that so great was the throng after the marriage, that the party was compelled to take refuge in an adjoining inn until the streets were less full. The bride was presented with a handsome bible by the Rev. H. S. Fletcher.

1912	26 April	Bakewell, DBY	died	[Windsor Castle Lodging House, High St, New Mills] NEVER SLEPT ON A BED. CENTENARIAN GIPSY'S DEATH AT BAKEWELL. The death of Gipsy Osery Boswell took place at Bakewell Workhouse on Friday in the 100th year of his age. Gipsy Boswell and his wife, Catherine, who is 88 years of age, came from Beeley Moor, to Cowhill-lane near Bakewell, where they were accommodated with an outbuilding, and in this they lived until a week ago, when Osery was removed to the Workhouse, and Catherine went to live with friends at Matlock. They had lived in the building at Cowhill-lane without a bed for 12 months, and it is said that Gipsy Boswell never indulged in the luxury of a bed during his life, a great part of which was passed in the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham. The deceased was in receipt of an old age pension.	The Derby Daily Telegraph , 27 April 1912, 3

Several of the gipsy clan attended, and the service was of a very simple character. One of the most pathetic figures present was the octogenarian widow, who had to be supported at the grave side.	The Derby Daily Telegraph , 30 April 1912, 2

1869	24 March	Stourport, WOR	in magistrates court	Sylvanus Boswell and Susannah Boswell, gipsies, encamped on Hartlebury Common, were charged with stealing 15lbs. of beef, the property of E. S. Millichap, of Hartlebury. Mr. Millichap stated that on the 17th inst. Boswell came to his house and asked him to give him some beef which was hung up a tree. He told him it was not good. Boswell replied he could eat it, Mr. Millichap then said he might have a couple of pounds of it. The beef was a shoulder, and weighed from 15lbs. to 20lbs. In about a quarter of an hour afterwards Mr. Millichap went out of the house towards the tree in which it hung and found it was all gone. P.C. Madeley received information of the robbery, and went to Hartlebury Common and saw the two prisoners driving a donkey up the road with packages on its back ; he had them undone, and found the beef produced. Susannah Boswell was discharged, and Sylvanus was sentenced to one month's hard labour.	The Worcestershire Chronicle , 31 March 1869, 4

1853	10 - 19 November	Retford, NTT	in gaol		The Nottinghamshire Guardian , 24 November 1853, 8
1853	19 November	Retford, NTT	in magistrates court	For several years past a notorious gang of Gipsies known as "Boswell's Gang" has infested this and the adjoining counties, living in tents and camping in the various bye lanes, &c., to the great annoyance of the farmers, on whose property serious damage has at various time been committed, not only by pilfering everything that came their way, but by destroying their fences for the purpose of making fires, &c., and although they have been continually routed by the police, no effectual stop could be made to them, owing principally to no one caring to strike the first blow. A short time since the police received orders when they found any of them camping in lanes, &c., to pass this lawless gang from one to another until they had passed them out of the county. On Thursday night week about 30 of the above gang were found encamping near the "Chequer House," about four miles from Retford, and adjoining Mr. Holmes farm, where several potatoe pies had most likely been attracting their attention. Mr. Holmes not liking the looks of so formidable a gang so near his "pies," set a man of the name of Merrils to watch their movements, and about midnight one of the gang came to the "pies" and began to help himself, taking [sic] away with him several pecks. In formation was forwarded to Retford, and superintendent Martin with two constables repaired to the "encampment" and apprehended all the men and conveyed them to the police station at Retford. On Saturday last they were brought before the magistrates in petty sessions, when they gave their names as Elijah Bosw II [sic], William Boswell, James Boswell, and Elijah Boswell, jun. Several of the leading farmers from off the forest were in attendance, and gave evidence of the annoyance they were subjected to by the prisoners now in custody, who had been camping about them at various times for years. W. Boswell was committed for trial at the ensuing sessions for stealing the potatoes, and the evidence not being so clear against the other three, they were committed to the House of Correction at Southwell for a month each, as rogues and vagabonds. Such effective measures as these will soon put a stop to these wandering and almost lawless vagabonds.	+	The Nottinghamshire Guardian , 24 November 1853, 8
				A ROYAL FAMILY. - There is in the county of Nottingham an extensive tribe of gipsies,	The Patriot , 28 November headed by Elijah Boswell, who is styled the Gipsy King, a distinction which he is said to have lineally inherited from a long line of ancestors. Four of the tribe - viz., Elijah and three of his sons - got "into trouble" last week on account of some little matter of meum , and tuum , and were brought before the Retford bench of magistrates on Saturday, on a charge of felony, which ended in Elijah and two of his sons being sent to the treadmill for a month, and the other son being committed for trial. The Gipsy King has been married three times, and the following enumeration of his family is supplied from his own archives : - 1. Eliza, born among the ling in Mansfield forest ; 2. Henrietta, born in Thieves'-dale-lane, near Osberton ; Alfred, born in Treswell Back-lane ; 4. Walter, born on Kneesall-green ; 5. Adelaide, born in a lane between Langwith and Pleasley ; 6. Henry, born in a lane near West Stockwith ; 7. Lucy, born under Firbeck-park-side ; 8. Adam, born on Walesby Breck ; 9. William, born in Gamston-wood ; 10. James, born in Layard's Leap, between Newark and Sleaford ; 11. Elijah, born near Sturton Highhouse ; 12. Magnus, born in a lane, near Langford ; 13. Riley, born near Bole guide-post ; 14. Alice, born in a lane near Mattersey Gorse.	1853, 787

1853	29 January	Nottingham, NTT	in magistrates court	Samson Boswell, Nelson Boswell, and Samuel Boswell, were charged by Mr. George Robinson, of Woodborough, with slaughtering a sheep, his property. An imprint of the boots of two of the prisoner, Samson and Nelson, was traced from the public-house where they were apprehended to the place where the sheep was slaughtered. No evidence being adduced to implicate Samuel Boswell, he was discharged. Mr. Superintendent Burrows applied for a remand of the other prisoners, in order that he might produce further evidence. The application was granted.								The Nottinghamshire Guardian , 3 February 1853, 6

BOSWELL, Elvira Jane

1834			birth	daughter of Thomas & Jane, Travelling Basket Maker. Born 1834. Married name BOSWELL [from 1882 baptism]	FreeREG
1856	7 May	Bilston, STS	married	Benjamin BOSWELL, 23, son of Samuel = Eliza BOSWELL, 22, daughter of Thomas Bilston has not, perhaps, presented so excited a scene since the last colliers' riots as was witnessed on Wednesday last, on the occasion of a gipsy marriage. Readers of the works of George Burrows [sic] , especially "The Gipsies in Spain," will remember that one of the peculiarities of this class is to lavish enormous expense at their marriages - an illustration of which was presented on Wednesday. The happy pair were Mr. Boswell, who led to the hymenal altar his cousin, Elvina Boswell. These gipsies are encamped near Moseley Hole, fully a mile from Bilston, and the men get a good deal of money as musicians, by playing at dances, inns, &c. The bride on the occasion wore a very handsome white Leghorn hat, trimmed with broad white ribbon, and adorned with a fine plume of feathers ; her dress was brocaded glacé satin. There were three bridesmaids, dressed in white, wearing similar hats to the bride ; and the exquisite taste with which the ladies were arrayed was the theme of general admiration. The procession walked from the gipsies' encampment to St. Leonard's Church, and attracted great attention, the crowd of attendant gazers continually increasing as it approached Bilston, so that, on reaching the town, the bridal party walked between two lines of people, who pressed so much upon them that it was necessary for the police to exert themselves to maintain order. The church was crowded with spectators. The ceremony was performed by the vicar, the Rev. H. S. Fletcher, assisted by the Rev. R. J. Heafield, of St. Luke's ; and at its close, the bells rang out a merry peal. The bridegroom invited the respectable persons present to visit the gipsies at their encampment, where a feast was provided. Several ladies and gentlemen accepted the invitation, and found a provision of a most ample character : beef and ham was provided in abundance, and ale and wine - and the visitors drank to the happiness of the newly-married couple from silver tankards, which were not the only articles of plate at the gipsies' tent. It may be mentioned, that so great was the throng after the marriage, that the party was compelled to take refuge in an adjoining inn until the streets were less full. The bride was presented with a	Original register transcript + The Derby Mercury , 14 May 1856, 8
