1908	June - December	near Kendal, WST		There are some gipsies camping near Kendal up in Westmoreland with whom I have become very intimately acquainted, as they have been staying there for 6 or 7 months and I have visited them regularly about 3 times a week except during the two months I was here last term. The man's name is Mr Shandres Petulam ^{engro} to gipsies and Mr Andrew Smith to gorgios, and his wife is a daughter of Bohemius Boswell the eldest son of the famous Sylvester.	Camden Town, Vaughan Williams Memorial Library, Lucy Broadwood Collection, LEB/5/381A & B, letter from T.W. Thompson, Cambridge, to Lucy Broadwood, 16 January 1909
1908	24 December	near Kendal, WST	visited by Thompson	Shandres was at home, and was mending his fiddle. When this had been successfully accomplished he very kindly consented to play for us, and, once begun, he played on and on, passed from one tune to another, dance-music and Christmas-carols, songs and hymns all coming alike to him. As he remembered some almost forgotten melody a beaming smile lit up his still handsome face, and never was he more pleased than when he played and sang a beautiful and pathetic old folk-song...	Thomas William Thompson, 'IV. - Christmas Eve and after', JGLS, new series, iii, no.1 (July 1909), 19

BOSWELL, Nathan

1892	20 June	St. Helens, LAN	in magistrates court	A young married gipsy named Nathan Boswell was charged at St. Helens, on Monday, with having abducted Ann Nora Boswell, daughter of Phoenix Boswell, the head of a tribe of gipsies, the girl being, as stated in the information, under the age of eighteen years. Chief Constable Wood stated that the father took out a warrant on Friday. The girl had made a statement, which he handed to the magistrates. He added that he was afraid they would not be able to get a copy of the register of her birth. She had produced a certificate granted by the Manchester police, showing she was nineteen years of age. Prisoner was her cousin. The father was called, and said his complaint was that his daughter ran away with a married man, neglected her parents, and made away with the goods she took. The Clerk : That is your complaint against your daughter, not against the prisoner. Witness : One is as bad as the other. She was sixteen on the 29th of last April. She has had her age put wrong in her certificate. Witness could not produce a copy of the register to show her age, and as the girl produced a certificate in which her age was put down as nineteen the prisoner was discharged. The girl went away evidently well pleased with the result of the proceedings.	The Leicester Chronicle, & Leicestershire Mercury, 25 June 1892, Supplement, 1
