1912	11 June	Goosey, BRK	charged with encamping on the highway		The North Berks Herald , 29 June 1912, 8
1912	26 June	Wantage, BRK	in magistrates court	Two gipsies, John Lewis and Rose Breakespeare were summoned for camping on the highway on Charney-road, in the parish of Goosey, on June 11th, and also for allowing two horses to stray in the parish of Denchworth on the same day. - Defendants pleaded guilty. - P.C. Hutson said that at 5.15 a.m. on June 11th, he was in the parish of Denchworth with P.C. Simmonds, when he saw two horses straying, without anyone in charge of them. He went in the direction of Goosey for about 1½ miles, where he found the defendants camping on the highway, and they were asleep. A man brought the horses up, and defendants claimed one each. When he served the male defendant with a summons, he was very abusive and used threats towards him. - Lewis was fined 10s. on each charge, and 8s. 6d. costs on each charge, making £1 17s. in all, and Breakespeare was fined 6d. on each charge and 8s. 6d costs, making 18s in all.	The North Berks Herald , 29 June 1912, 8
