1855	30 October	Tiverton, DEV	in magistrates court as complainant	... Robert Leach, William Greenslade, Anthony Tucker, William Pring, and John Pall , all of Shillingford, near Bampton, were summoned for an assault on John Broadway, a gipsy horse dealer, on the 25th inst. It appears that a disturbance took place at the Barleycorn Inn at Shillingford that evening in consequence of a boy connected with the gipsies disputing a toss about a pint of ale ; and an attack was made on the gipsies by some persons present, amongst whom were the defendants. Leach was seen to strike the complainant a blow on the head which knocked him down, and he was severely bruised by kicks and blows, and blood flowing most copiously from his head he remained insensible for some hours. The Bench, after a protracted hearing, fined Leach £5, the other defendants £1 each, including costs, which were paid.	The Exeter and Plymouth Gazette , 3 November 1855, 8

BROADWAY, Matthew

c1800		Southampton, HAM	birth
1832	early February	not known, DEV	arrested	The following persons were committed as vagrants to the Devon County House of Correction, last week, for sleeping in tents in the open air, having no visible means of obtaining a livelihood, and not giving a satisfactory account of themselves : - Matthew Broadway, sen., for two months ; Matthew Broadway, jun., his wife, and child, for six weeks ; Peter Hicks, his wife, and six children, for one month. They were all of the gipsy tribe. Peter Hicks had £81 10s., in gold, in his possession, which was detained, by order of the Magistrates, for the purpose of defraying the expence of apprehension and maintenance in prison. The others had horses and other property, which will be sold to defray the expence of their apprehension and maintenance, unless they pay it from some other source. The wife of the senior Broadway escaped from the constable, and it is supposed she had considerable property in her possession.	The Sherborne Mercury , 13 February 1832, 4
