1923	mid-November	Fairford, GLS	burial of father	A well-known member of the travelling fraternity, Abraham Buckland, was laid to rest in the Parish Churchyard by the side of his wife, who predeceased him some 10 years ago. Deceased was well known throughout a large area, and attended the various fairs until he ceased travelling. He was a skilful player on the violin. Over 70 relatives of the deceased followed him to his last resting place, and the coffin, which was of polished oak with brass furniture, bore the following inscription : "Abraham Buckland, died Nov. 16th, 1923, aged 87 years." There were a large number of very beautiful floral tributes, one of which was artistically designed in the shape of a violin.	The Wilts and Gloucestershire Standard , 24 November 1923, 5

BUCKLAND, Henry

1893	11 August	Oxford, OXF	in magistrates court	Henry Buckland and William Buckland, gipsy encampment, Abingdon-road, were charged on a warrant with stealing a cob, value 16l., the property of Alfred A. J. Goodall, of Friars'-street, from a field on the Botley-road. It appeared that the proceedings were owing to a mistake made by a man, named Warnes, to whom the Buckland's [sic] had sold another pony. - The case was, therefore, dismissed.
