1881	14 - 24 May		in gaol						The Manchester Times , 28 May 1881, 3
1881	24 May	Manchester, LAN	in magistrates court	At the Manchester County Police Court, Strange Ways, on Tuesday, Eliza Dove, glass and china dealer, 28, Jersey-street, Ancoats, and Helen Clayton, hawker, 10, Hiram-street, Bradford Road, were charged with having endeavoured to defraud the London and North-Western Railway Company. Mr. W. A. Lynde, who appeared on behalf of the company, stated that on the 12th instant the two defendants took return tickets from Manchester to Stockport. Instead of getting out at Stockport they went on to Sandbach, where the tickets were collected, and where they paid the additional fare required from them. They afterwards would appear to have got to Nantwich, for on the 14th inst. they took tickets from that place to Crewe. A detective travelled in the same train, and observing that they did not get other tickets at Crewe, he informed a ticket collector of their proceedings. This collector thereupon proceeded to Longsight, where the defendants handed him their return tickets from Stockport. He afterwards took them to the Fairfield-street police station, where they gave up the tickets they had obtained from Nantwich to Crewe. - Dove, who has formerly been convicted of a similar offence, was fined 40s. and costs, and Clayton 20s. and costs.					The Manchester Times , 28 May 1881, 3
