DALE, Ann

1868	18 June	Rochford, ESS	in magistrates court	Ann Dale , of Rayleigh, fruiterer, was summoned by John Ennis, district surveyor, for obstructing a free passage of highway at Rayleigh on the 10th last. - Mr. Digby, of Maldon, appeared for defendant. - Edward Judd said : I am bailiff of the manor of Rayleigh ; I let the piece of ground to the defendant for the fair ; I considered Wednesday, the 10th inst., one of the fair days ; the custom is to stand for three days, and I have known it for 20 years. - John Macklin also deposed to having known the custom at Rayleigh fair for the last 43 years, and that the fair lasted three days. Case dismissed. - Summonses were also taken out against John Macklin, of Rayleigh, hawker, and Matthew Finch, of Peterborough, hawker, for a similar offence. Both cases were withdrawn.					The Chelmsford Chronicle , 26 June 1868, 9
