1785	16 July passim	Holwell-mouth, near Melton Mowbray, LEI	meeting to celebrate the marriage	Leicester, July 22. Saturday laft was married at St. Margaret's Church in this town, PHOENIX! a youth belonging to BOSWELL'S GANG OF GYPSIES, [now huttid in Humbertone-field,) to Miss BOSWELL, daughter of Mr. Bofwell, King of this fraternity. His Gypfean Majefty attended the ceremony : Charlotte Bofwell was bride-maid, and 10 or 12 of the gang likewise attended. They presented the Clergyman who performed the ceremony with 10s. 6d. and to the ringers 15s. with a good dinner and drink in great plenty. - We underftand that a marriage ceremony amongst this tribe of people is always celebrated with great merriment, and the feafting lasts for 14 days ; indeed it is impossible to conceive a happier fet of people than they appeared to be on this occafion. The confummation of the nuptial rights was intended to be in Humbertone-field ; where perhaps Phœnix and his tawny Princefs, upon a green fod, with the canopy of heaven their only covering, may tafte as much real felicity as thofe of a higher order in their beds of down with pillows of thorns ... Phoenix's trade is that of a tinker - his wife is a dealer in palmeftry ... The Gypfies have undoubtedly a form of government amongst themfelves, and to their King pay the moft implicit obedience ; to this fubmiffion we may fairly attribute their apparent happinefs ; - they have no falfe honour amongst them, and they look upon fame as the moft grievous punifhment in the world. - ...Phoenix' trade is that of a tinker — his wife is a dealer in palmiftry... We learn that in a few days, at or near Holwell-mouth, by Melton Mowbray, there will be a general meeting of Gypsies from Leicestershire and the neighbouring counties, to celebrate the nuptials of Phoenix with the King's daughter. The Gypsies have undoubtedly a form of government amongst themfelves, and to their King pay the moft implicit obedience ; to this fubmiffion we may fairly attribute their apparent happinefs. They have no falfe honour amongst them, and they look upon fame as the moft grievous punifhment in the world.	The Bath Chronicle and Weekly Gazette , 28 July 1785, 3 [additional paragraph added] The Lincoln Gazetteer , 29 July 1785, page not known [poor tranfcription]
