FLEW, William

1887	19 June	Abingdon, BRK	in magistrates court	William Hook and William Flew , hawkers, said to hail from Bristol, were charged with stealing a faggot, value threepence, the property of Israel Dyer, at Marcham, that morning ; and further with trespassing in search of game on land belonging to Mr. C.P. Duffield. - It appeared that William Cross, a keeper, saw the men with lurcher dogs on land near Marcham, and they were also seen to take a faggot, but on being observed put it down again. As they were strangers, they were brought into Abingdon by P.C. Luker. - The Bench reprimanded defendants, but, in consideration of the festive character of the day [i.e. June Fair], discharged them on payment of the costs, 6s. 6d. each.	The Abingdon Herald , 25 June 1887, 8
