

GLOVER, --

1624/ 1625	6 February	Ruscomber, BRK	buried	a stranger	Original register transcript
---------------	------------	----------------	--------	------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, John

1682	11 July	Southill, BDF	baptism of Thomas	John & Ann, vagabonds	Original register transcript
------	---------	---------------	-------------------	-----------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Thomas

1688	15 October	Ashbury, BRK	burial of Thomas	son of Thomas, a traveller, inf.	Original register transcript
------	------------	--------------	------------------	----------------------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Thomas

1682	11 July	Southill, BDF	baptised	son of John & Ann, vagabonds	Original register transcript
------	---------	---------------	----------	------------------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Thomas

1688	15 October	Ashbury, BRK	buried	son of Thomas, a traveller, inf.	Original register transcript
------	------------	--------------	--------	----------------------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Mary

1741	25 November	Towcester, NTH	buried	Vagrant	Original register transcript
------	-------------	----------------	--------	---------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Sarah

1772	22 December	Horsham, SSX	buried	a Traveler	Original register transcript
------	-------------	--------------	--------	------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, John

1756	10 April	Buckland, BRK	baptism of Mary	John & Margaret, vagrants	Original register transcript
------	----------	---------------	-----------------	---------------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Mary

1756	10 April	Buckland, BRK	baptised	daughter of John & Margaret, vagrants	Original register transcript
------	----------	---------------	----------	---------------------------------------	------------------------------

GLOVER, Elizabeth

1809	mid October	Stafford, STS	at the Sessions	At Stafford feffions, William Glover, Survina Glover, Mary Glover, Elizabeth Glover, and Jofeph Glover, were all judged rogues and vagabonds ; William was ordered to be fent into the Marine fervice, Jofeph to be fent to fea, and the three women to be detained till the next feffions. Thefe five were travelling gipfies. A great quantity of shawls, handkerchiefs, and various articles of wearing apparel, were found in their poffeffion, most of which are fuppofed to have been ftofen.	The Derby Mercury , 19 October 1809, 3
------	-------------	---------------	-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------

GLOVER, Joseph

1809	mid October	Stafford, STS	at the Sessions	At Stafford feffions, William Glover, Survina Glover, Mary Glover, Elizabeth Glover, and Jofeph Glover, were all judged rogues and vagabonds ; William was ordered to be fent into the Marine fervice, Jofeph to be fent to fea, and the three women to be detained till the next feffions. Thefe five were travelling gipfies. A great quantity of shawls, handkerchiefs, and various articles of wearing apparel, were found in their poffeffion, most of which are fuppofed to have been ftofen.	The Derby Mercury , 19 October 1809, 3
------	-------------	---------------	-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------

GLOVER, Mary

1809	mid October	Stafford, STS	at the Sessions	At Stafford feffions, William Glover, Survina Glover, Mary Glover, Elizabeth Glover, and Jofeph Glover, were all judged rogues and vagabonds ; William was ordered to be fent into the Marine fervice, Jofeph to be fent to fea, and the three women to be detained till the next feffions. Thefe five were travelling gipfies. A great quantity of shawls, handkerchiefs, and various articles of wearing apparel, were found in their poffeffion, most of which are fuppofed to have been ftofen.	The Derby Mercury , 19 October 1809, 3
------	-------------	---------------	-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------

GLOVER, Survina

1809	mid October	Stafford, STS	at the Sessions	At Stafford feffions, William Glover, Survina Glover, Mary Glover, Elizabeth Glover, and Jofeph Glover, were all judged rogues and vagabonds ; William was ordered to be fent into the Marine fervice, Jofeph to be fent to fea, and the three women to be detained till the next feffions. Thefe five were travelling gipfies. A great quantity of shawls, handkerchiefs, and various articles of wearing apparel, were found in their poffeffion, most of which are fuppofed to have been ftofen.	The Derby Mercury , 19 October 1809, 3
------	-------------	---------------	-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------

GLOVER, William

1809	mid October	Stafford, STS	at the Sessions	At Stafford feffions, William Glover, Survina Glover, Mary Glover, Elizabeth Glover, and Jofeph Glover, were all judged rogues and vagabonds ; William was ordered to be fent into the Marine fervice, Jofeph to be fent to fea, and the three women to be detained till the next feffions. Thefe five were travelling gipfies. A great quantity of shawls, handkerchiefs, and various articles of wearing apparel, were found in their poffeffion, most of which are fuppofed to have been ftofen.	The Derby Mercury , 19 October 1809, 3
------	-------------	---------------	-----------------	-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------------