SHAW, Holland alias GRAY

c1842			birth
1845	26 April	not known, CAM	died	On Monday last, Mr. Marshall, coroner, for the Isle of Ely, held an inquest at the Three Tuns public-house, at Aldreth, in the parish of Haddenham, on the body of Holland Shaw, alias Holland Gray, a child about two and a-half years old, who was burnt to death. It appeared from the evidence of the father and mother (who are gypsies,) that they left the tent with their children on Saturday for the purpose of selling goods, and during their absence the child's clothes caught fire, and it was so dreadfully burnt that it lingered until Sunday, when death put an end to its dreadful sufferings. Verdict - accidental death .	The Cambridge Chronicle , 3 May 1845, 3

1862	19 December	Cambridge, CAM	in magistrates court as witness	Wallis Good was charged with assaulting Sarah Thorpe. - The prosecutrix is a gipsy, and is living in a house up Castle-end. The people were constantly annoying her ; and on Saturday last, between ten and eleven in the evening, she heard a noise, and saw a party following her son, and one was stripped to fight him. She caught hold of her son, and pushed him into the house. The defendant then struck her violently on the face and side, saying, "You b-----, you can't get any law ; you're a gipsy." - Wm. Thorpe, son of the prosecutrix, was called, and corroborated these statements. Had not done anything to provoke their violence. - Mr. NAYLOR appeared for the prosecution. - Defendant was fined 2s. 6d and costs. [sic] Henry Good was charged with assaulting Wm. Thorpe. This case arose out of the last. - The Court fined him 6d. and costs.	The Cambridge Chronicle and Journal , 20 December 1862, 8

1865	20 November	Grantham, LIN	in magistrates court	Emily Elliott was charged with obtaining, on the 29th of May last, from the shop of Mr. Edward Cooper, Westgate, a fancy dress, value 18s 6d, and several other articles of smaller value, under the false pretence that she was Emily Gray, sister of John Gray, of New-street, but whilst the bill was being made out she said her name was Elliott. A warrant was issued at the time, but she was not heard of until a few days ago. It came out that on the morning of her apprehension Mr. Cooper received 10s on account of the bill. On hearing this the magistrates dismissed the charge, and Mr. Cooper had the costs, £1 17s 6d, to pay.					The Lincolnshire Chronicle , 23 November 1865, 7

1877	November	Norwich, NFK	letter written by brother Alfred published	To the Editor. SIR. - My attention has been called to a case reported in your journal tried at the late Ipswich assizes, and which was a charge of stealing a letter. One of the prisoners (Alfred Gray) bears the same name as I do, and he and the companions of his crime are described as "gipsy fiddlers." I and my family are well-known throughout the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk as travelling musicians, and up to the present no stain of dishonesty has yet fallen on our name, and I hope never will. I address you, sir, to ask as a favour that you will insert this letter, so that the public may know that the persons convicted at the Ipswich assizes are in no way connected with the family. Your obedient servant, ALFRED GRAY. Bethel-street, Norwich.		The Norfolk Chronicle , 10 November 1877, Supplement, 10, correspondence.

1890	2 June	Ingham, NFK	at the fair		Jackson's Oxford Journal , 7 June 1890, 2
1890	first week in June	North Walsham, NFK	in magistrates court	A desperate affray occurred on Monday at Ingham (Norfolk) fair. Adolphus and Obadiah Gray - uncle and nephew - gipsies, proprietors of adjoining stalls, had an altercation, and a violent fight ensued, during which both men fell. Whilst they were on the ground the wife of Adolphus came, it is said, with a chopper and hewed at Obadiah, who was uppermost. She missed her aim, and cut her husband's finger nearly off, but subsequently struck Obadiah twice upon the head. One of the wounds thus inflicted was a clean cut on the top of the skull nearly through the bone. Another cut was on the cheek. The police, having heard of what was going on, hastened to the place, and arrested Adolphus and his wife, who were charged at North Walsham Petty Sessions with unlawfully wounding with intent to kill. They were committed for trial at the ensuing Norwich Assizes, bail being refused.	Jackson's Oxford Journal , 7 June 1890, 2

				obtaining a filly by false pretences from George Pick, farmer, of Kirton Fen, on the 1st day of December, 1877. Prisoners pleaded not guilty. - Mr. Dyer prosecuted : Mr. Bean appeared for Samuel Gray, and Mr. Cranch, of Nottingham, appeared for Abraham. - The case occupied the Court a considerable time, but the facts of the case were as follows : - On the 1st of December prisoners went to prosecutor's premises and said they had been sent by their brother, Thomas Gray, of Heckington, to purchase a filly, which they did for £40, giving 10s. out for luck. £1 was paid on account and the remainder was to be paid on the 6th December at Boston, but the prisoners failed to pay the remainder. The prosecutor then saw Thomas Gray, of Heckington, who told him that the prisoners had no authority from him to buy his horse. Warrants were then taken out for the apprehension of the prisoners, and Abraham was taken at Beverley Fair, and Samuel surrendered. They were charged with obtaining the horse by false pretences. - Mr. Cranch and Mr. Bean made able speeches on behalf of the prisoners, contending that the horse was bought by Samuel on his own account. - The jury returned a verdict of guilty. - Sentence deferred. 1877	November	Norwich, NFK	letter written by brother Alfred published	To the Editor.SIR. - My attention has been called to a case reported in your journal tried at the late Ipswich assizes, and which was a charge of stealing a letter. One of the prisoners (Alfred Gray) bears the same name as I do, and he and the companions of his crime are described as "gipsy fiddlers." I and my family are well-known throughout the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk as travelling musicians, and up to the present no stain of dishonesty has yet fallen on our name, and I hope never will. I address you, sir, to ask as a favour that you will insert this letter, so that the public may know that the persons convicted at the Ipswich assizes are in no way connected with the family.Your obedient servant,ALFRED GRAY. Bethel-street, Norwich.	The Norfolk Chronicle , 10 November 1877, Supplement, 10, correspondence.

1878	31 January	Ferriby Sluice, LIN	apprehended by the police	On the night of Thursday, the 24th ult., a female named Emma Cross was returning from Brigg to Winterton and when between Appleby and Winterton she was accosted by a man who demanded her money. The poor girl being frightened gave him a shilling, and upon her calling for assistance he made off. On arriving at Winterton she gave information to Inspector Dain, and also a description of the man. Yesterday afternoon the Inspector succeeded in apprehending one of a gipsy fraternity name Samuel Gray, who was staying in a field near Ferriby Sluice, whom the girl identified as the thief.	The Hull Packet and East Riding Times , 1 February 1878, 7

1878	2 April	Boston, LIN	at the Sessions	ABRAHAM GRAY and SAMUEL GRAY, horse dealers, Heckington, were indicted with obtaining a filly by false pretences from George Pick, farmer, of Kirton Fen, on the 1st day of December, 1877. Prisoners pleaded not guilty. - Mr. Dyer prosecuted : Mr. Bean appeared for Samuel Gray, and Mr. Cranch, of Nottingham, appeared for Abraham. - The case occupied the Court a considerable time, but the facts of the case were as follows : - On the 1st of December prisoners went to prosecutor's premises and said they had been sent by their brother, Thomas Gray, of Heckington, to purchase a filly, which they did for £40, giving 10s. out for luck. £1 was paid on account and the remainder was to be paid on the 6th December at Boston, but the prisoners failed to pay the remainder. The prosecutor then saw Thomas Gray, of Heckington, who told him that the prisoners had no authority from him to buy his horse. Warrants were then taken out for the apprehension of the prisoners, and Abraham was taken at Beverley Fair, and Samuel surrendered. They were charged with obtaining the horse by false pretences. - Mr. Cranch and Mr. Bean made able speeches on behalf of the prisoners, contending that the horse was bought by Samuel on his own account. - The jury returned a verdict of guilty. - Sentence deferred. 1872	6 May	Somersham, then Colne, HUN	Sophia and Abigail assaulted	GROSS OUTRAGE ON GIPSIES. – At St. Ives, Hunts, yesterday, William Watson, farmer, of Colne, and William Holmes, labourer, were charged with grossly assauting and doing bodily harm to Sophia and Abigail Grey, gipsies. The parties met in a public - house; Watson treated the women, bought their whole stock of wooden ware, and desired them to go to his house. Here they were treated with drink, which rendered them insensible, and when they recovered they were in a cow-shed, having been terribly ill-treated. Both prisoners were committed for trial at Huntingdonshire Assizes.						The Sheffield Daily Telegraph , 24 May 1872, 2
1872	late July	Huntingdon, HUN	at the Assizes as complainant	HORRIBLE OUTRAGE ON GIPSY WOMEN. – At the Huntingdon Assizes last week, William Watson (admitted to bail, 28), farmer, and William Holmes (22), labourer, were indicted for an outrage upon Abigail Gray and Sophia Gray, on the 6th May, at Colne. The particulars of this case were unusually atrocious. The two women, mother and daughter, were engaged in selling wood-ware about the country, and on the 6th May called in at the Durham Ox, a public-house at Somersham. They there saw the prisoner Watson, to whom they sold some goods, and he afterwards gave them a sovereign for all they had. At his request the two women took the goods to his house, and he got out some whiskey, with which he plied the women till they became insensible, after which they were carried to a cow-hovel, where the outrages complained of were committed. Watson aftwards made a boast of the brutality, and called the attention of others to the condition of the women. The Jury acquitted Holmes, but convicted Watson of indecent assault with violence; and Mr. Baron Piggott - who stated that throughout his experience of forty years he never remembered a case in which such unmanly, brutal, horrible abominable advantage was taken of two helpless women who had been purposely brought to that condition - sentenced him to the extreme punishment imposed for this offence, five years' penal servitude.						The Essex Weekly News , 2 August 1872, 5

1869	5 August	Brigg, LIN	death of father	The annual August fair was held on Thursday, the 5th inst., and was more numerous attended than for several years past...The pleasures of the day were sadly marred by a fatal accident which occurred in the afternoon opposite the White Horse Inn, by which a horse dealer, named Christopher Gray, lost his life, and two other persons were severely injured. It appears that as Mr. Swallow, of Chapel Farm, near Barton, was driving homewards in his dog cart, when approaching the cemetery he met a velocipede, and his horse, being rather a sprightly one, shied, and galloped suddenly round on to the embankment, throwing Mr. Swallow out, but fortunately with only a severe shaking. The horse galloped heedlessly on through the toll-bar, and into the midst of the horse fair, knocking down several people, and ran into the back of the deceased, who completely turned a somersault, and becoming entangled in the reins was dragged along the road a few yards, whereby his skull was fractured and a blood vessel ruptured, and he died about an hour afterwards, at the White Horse, where he had been carried. Every possible effort was made to save his life by Messrs. Paterson and Son. Mr. Swallow was soon on the spot, and very kindly ordered that no expense should be spared to alleviate the sufferings of the poor unfortunate man. An inquest was held on the body on the following day, before T. Marris, Esq., coroner, when a verdict of "Accidental death" was returned, some remarks being made as to the danger of velocipedes and bicycles being allowed to run on the high roads and public thoroughfares...		The Lincolnshire Chronicle , 13 August 1869, 8
1869	7 August	Brigg, LIN	burial of father	... The deceased was interred at the Brigg Cemetery on Saturday last, followed to the grave by about 30 of his nearest relatives. Upwards of 1,000 persons congregated in the Cemetery to witness the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. T. Woodhouse, curate of Brigg, who gave a very able and touching address at the close of the service, which was appropriate and suitable for the occasion.		The Lincolnshire Chronicle , 13 August 1869, 8
