1869	30 November	Watford, HRT	in magistrates court	ALLEGED HERRING STEALING. Meshach Hearn was brought up on remand from Wednesday, charged with stealing, at Bushey, on the 30th Nov., 1868, ten boxes, ten pads, and a barrel of herrings, of the vaule of £4, the property of the late William Courtenay, of Bushey. Mr. Boydell appeared for the prisoner. Mr. Blagg stated that Hearn had been apprehended on a warrant issued in 1868. He had been away ever since. Miss Kate Courtenay deposed : I reside at Clay Hill, Bushey, and am a green grocer. My brother, William Courtenay, died on the 9th of June last. About two days after Rickmansworth Fair, 24th November, my late brother purchased some herrings. –	The Herts Advertiser and St. Alban's Times, 11 December 1869, 6

				Twenty boxes, twenty pads, and two barrels of Fresh herrings containing 400 in each barrel. My brother brought them home. I was present when my brother employed the prisoner. He had employed the prisoner the week before Rickmansworth Fair. He sent him down with some herrings and he brought the money back safe. I was present when he sent him the second time. When my brother employed him the second time to go to Wycombe market he gave him ten boxes of herrngs, ten pads and a barrel of fresh herings. I saw them loaded. He took the herrings away in my brother's horse and cart, and my brother followed him to the gate at the bottom of the yard and gave him some money. I saw no more of the prisoner until the following Saturday evening, when he brought a sack, and he told me to tell my brother he would come down and settle with him. He did not come. My brother afterwards caused a warrant be issued for the apprehension of the prisoner. I have not seen the prisoner for twelve months. The prisoner's name is Meshach Hearn. The prisoner and my brother were not in partnership. By Mr. Boydell : I never knew the prisoner until the week before Richmansworth fair. I do not know whether he was present when my brother purchased the herrings. They were not continually together. I often wondered what the prisoner had to do with him. He was employed to sell the herrings and bring the money home. Mr. Boydell submitted that no case had been made out – no criminal charge. Prisoner had been employed to sell the herrings, and no evidence had been given to show that he had not sold them. There might have been a breach of trust, but certainly no felony, as charged. The charge was dismissed. ALLEGED HORSE STEALING. The prisoner Hearn was next charged with stealing a mare, of the value of £5. Mr. Boydell objected to this case being proceeded with, on the ground that the prisoner had only been apprehended on one charge, which included the theft of the horse and herrings, and it could not now be separated into two. Common sense would evidence this. Mr. Dale said that when a charge was investigated before the magistrates, and turned out to consist of two different cases, common sense would decide that the charges should be dealt with separately, according to their nature. Perhaps his common sense and Mr. Boydell's differed. The objection was repelled. Esau Bates, aged 16, deposed : Last year I went to Rickmansworth fair, on the 24th of November, to look for a job of work, and I saw William Courtenay at the fair dealing for a horse. When he had bought it I asked him to give me the job to take it to Busey for him. I saw Courtenay take his purse out of his pocket to pay for the horse, and when they came out again Courtenay said to me "You take this horse home and tell my sister to give it some corn." I took the horse home to Courtenay's house at Bushey, and saw his sister and told her she was to give the horse some corn. And she and her mother came and helped me to put the horse into the stable, and I saw the sister of Courtenay feed the horse as requested. By Mr. Boydell : Mr. Courtenay told me he had paid £3 10s. for it, but I never saw any money pass. I was about twenty yards off when the mare was bought. There were many people about. I had known Courtenay for some time previously. I had been in the habit of buying herrings from him to sell. I do not know whether Mr. Courtenay paid the whole of the money. Miss Courtenay deposed : I recollect the last witness, Esau Bates, bring a brown mare from Rickmansworth fait last year, in November. He brought it into the yard. He said he had brought it from my brother William Courtenay. I fed the mare and put it in the stable. My brother came home about an hour afterwards. The mare remained with my brother until Wednesday evening, the day following, when my brother sent the prisoner with a load of herrings to Wycombe market to sell for him. I saw them loaded into the cart and helped to load them. The mare was put in a cart which the prisoner had bought of my brother, and on which he had paid a deposit of £1, with a promise to pay the remainder of the price on the following Saturday. The prisoner came back on the following Saturday afternoon, and told me he was going to take the mare to meet a friend, and would be back shortly and settle with him. We never saw him or the mare again, upon which my brother took out a warrant for his apprehension in the month of December last. I have not seen the prisoner since until I saw him in custody at the police station on Tuesday night last. My brother died on the ninth of June last. The mare was worth £5. The cart was purchased by the prisoner a week before the mare was bought by my late brother. By Mr. Boydell : I saw the prisoner in the house before my brother left for Rickmansworth. Mr. Courtenay returned alone, and had no money in his pockets. That morning I had brought him down two sovereigns, and he had money in his pocket. I am sure the sovereign was not paid on account of the horse as it had not been bought. The cart had been bought a week previously. Police-constable Joseph Devereux said : I have been stationed at Bushey for the last two years. I have known that a warrant had been out for the apprehension of the prisoner on this and another charge, since the 1st of December last. I have made various attempts to apprehend him since then but was unable to do so until Tuesday last, when I apprehended him in a beer house at Clay-hill, Bushey. I had the warrant with me. I read it to him. He said he knew nothing of it. I believe he had been away from the neighbourhood ever since the warrant has been out against him, until Tuesday last.

				I took him to the police station at Bushey. By Mr. Boydell : He accompanied me quietly. I know nothing as to his character or circumstances. The prisoner having been duly cautioned, and asked if he had anything to say in answer to the charge, replied "I am not guilty." Mr. Boydell contended that the horse had been purchased between the prisoner and Mr. Courtenay, and was therefore partnership property. The prisoner under these circumstances had a perfect right to remove it. Joseph Taylor was then called for the defence. He deposed : I reside at Hounslow, Middlesex, and am a licensed hawker. I know the prisoner and also knew the late Mr. Courtenay. I met both at Rickmansworth fair in November, 1868, when I had a brown mare for sale. They came to me and saw the animal. The prisoner asked me how much I wanted for it, and I replied £3/10/-. At this time Courtenay was not present. Hearn offered me £3. In an hour afterwards both came to me, and I told them the sum offered was not sufficient. Prisoner said I had not sold the animal yet, and I replied in the negative. Courtenay remarked "Tell Hearn the lowest you will take for her," and I said £3/5/0. Courtenay said "Shall we have her?" and Hearn replied "Yes, if you like." Both then said "We will have her." The prisoner laid a portion of the purchase money on the bar, and Courtenay put down the remainder. I did not hear Courtenay apply to the prisoner for the loan of any money. If he had done so I must have heard it, Courtenay took the mare from me and gave it to Hearn. I did not give a receipt for the money, and never give any. The prisoner is in the habit of travelling about the country dealing. The money was paid in the George. The boy Bates was recalled and identified this witness as one of the men he had seen in the company of Hearn and Courtenay. Mr. Boydell asked that upon this evidence the prisoner might be discharged. The Bench, after a short consultation, thought there was sufficient to warrant them in committing for trial. He was afterwards admitted to bail.

1879	21 April	Swansea, GLA	gave evidence to an inquest	An inquest was held at the Talbot Inn, St. Mary-street, on Monday (before Mr. E. Strick), to inquire into the circumstances attending the death of William Corn, of Cross-street. Elizabeth Corn said she was the widow of the deceased. He was a dredger, and 40 years of age. On Saturday morning he left his home early to go out in a dredger belonging to Captain David Evans, of the Mumbles. John Fisher had charge of the boat. She was surprised that he did not return that night, and on Sunday morning his body was brought home. The trousers and boots had been taken from the body when it was brought to her house. Henry Whitby stated that he saw the defendant at Black Pill on Saturday evening. He gave a woman fivepence to get some rum, and had about eight or nine shillings from which he selected the fivepence. He was tipsy, and asked witness to go as far as the Woodman Inn, but he refused. Deceased then went away. Mary Ellis, of the Red Lion Inn, Black Pill, stated that she supplied the deceased with a pint of beer in a bottle between eight and nine o'clock on Saturday evening. Crimea Herring , belonging to a company of gypsies, stated that on Saturday he was encamped between the London and North Western Railway and the sea at Black Pill. On Sunday morning he saw the body of a man on the sands, and without going near it he informed Police-constable Mark Thomas of what he had seen. Police-constable Thomas stated that he went to the sands with the last witness, and there saw the body of the deceased. It was naked from the waist downwards and covered with sand. He searched the pockets, but found no money. He had the body conveyed home. The inquest was then adjourned until to-day (Tuesday) for further evidence.	The Western Mail , 22 April 1879, 3

1907	?June or July	not known, WLS	met by Alfred James	One dark night eight or ten years ago, at about 11 P.M., when sitting by Crimea Herne's fire we heard a moorhen crying out, and the Gypsies made comments on the fact. About two months later one of Crimea's sons died at Sketty, near Swansea, and I should not be surprised if he connected the two events. 1867	12 June	Hammersmith, MDX	in magistrates court as witness	CHARGE OF ASSAULT. – Amos Lee, an elderly man, who appeared to be a cripple, was charged with assaulting Providence Hearne, aged 9 years, on Shepherd's Bush Green on Whit Monday. The girl's face was sun-burnt, and it appeared that her parents travelled about the country. She was sitting down at the time the prisoner assaulted her. Mr. Martin, who defended, thought it was an extraordinary charge seeing that the prisoner was a cripple and could scarcely assist himself, and that if the offence was committed it must have been in the presence of an immense number of persons. The aunt of the little girl gave confirmatory evidence. Mr. Ingham thought the case proved, and ordered him to be imprisoned for three months. Mr. Martin asked for the attendance of the surgeon. Mr. Ingham. – Oh, yes, certainly. He is remanded until Tuesday, and let the surgeon attend.	141v
