1874	25 May	Towyn, DEN	in magistrates court	ALLEGED ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO ROB. - On Monday, May 25th, before W. W. E. Wynne, Esq., and W. R. M. Wynne, Esq., Oliver Lee, a basket maker by trade, was charged with the above-named offence. He was brought up in custody of P.C. William Jones, and fined twenty-one shillings including costs for assault, or one month's imprisonment in default of payment. The charge of intent to rob was dismissed. This case arose as follows :- as Mr Owen, of Bryn, was going home from Towyn on Saturday night, he came in collision with Oliver Lee, when a fight took place, in which the prisoner was assisted by his wife. The fight took place on the turnpike road between Towyn and Bryncrug, and both parties bore marks that the dispute had been hotly contested. After the affray was over, the plaintiff made the best of his way to Towyn, bringing with him the hat of his assailant. P.C. Jones was soon in pursuit, and after a toilsome search brought the prisoner safely back, though he was only in possession of a very poor scent when he started, as the assailants were tramps, and unknown to the plaintiff and to the country. Credit is due to the police for the capture.	The Cambrian News, 29 May 1874, 8

1894	8 March	Widnes, LAN	probably in magistrates court	John Price, wanted by the Widnes police for committing criminal assaults on two little girls at Widnes, last Sunday, was captured at Warrington on Wednesday night. Detective-sergeant Monaghan came across Price in Buttermarket-street, Warrington. He accosted him, and the man gave the name of "Williams," working at the forge, Warrington, for the past three weeks. Seeing that the man's dress tallied with the description of the Widnes police, particularly as to wearing a clog on one foot and a shoe on the other, he was taken to the Police Station by the detective. Price afterwards admitted his identity, and was handed over to the Widnes police. On Thursday, at the Widnes Petty Sessions, Price, who is about 35 years, and of no fixed abode. was charged with assaulting two little girls named Violet Lee, aged five	The Widnes Examiner, 10 March 1894, 5 years, and Lily Lee, aged three years, daughters of Oliver Lee, hobby-horse owner, at present residing in Widnes. The offences were alleged to have been committed on Sunday the 4th inst. in the neighbourhood of Widnes-road. Prisoner was committed to the Assizes. A large crowd of people had collected outside the Police Station by the time the case was concluded, and owing to their hostility prisoner's removal to Walton was postponed.

1863	mid-June	Barking, ESS	father charged with manslaughter of William NICHOLLS	Manslaughter at East Ham – Inquest on the body of William Nicholls, 24, a Gypsy, who was killed in a fight with John Lee, another Gypsy. It appeared that the deceased and Lee belonged to a tribe of Gypsies encamped on waste ground at North Woolwich. A	The Chelmsford Chronicle , 26 June 1863, page not known; transcribed by AF few days ago a quarrel took place between two others of the tribe, named Lazarus Smith and Harran, but who, after fighting together for three hours, they shook hands and became friends again. On returning to the camp, however, the wife of John Lee, and the mother of the deceased Nicholls, took the matter up and fought with each other, when Lee interfered on behalf of his wife, and deceased on behalf of his mother. This fight was the subject of investigations the next day . . . at the Woolwich Police Court, when the case was dismissed. On the 15th inst., the camp broke up, and the whole tribe, numbering upwards of a hundred persons, proceeded towards East Ham. On their route Lee and Nicholls selected a spot to fight; feeling dissatisfied at the magistrate not dealing with the case, and after fighting for an hour and a half, Lee was heard to declare he had had enough and wished to give in. The deceased, however, persisted in continuing the fight, saying he was quite fresh and could "fight through a summer's day." They again fought and in the last round Lee struck the deceased a heavy blow under the left jaw, knocking him down and rendering him insensible. Medical aid was obtained, but the deceased expired half an hour afterwards. A post-mortem examination made on the body proved death to have resulted from an effusion of blood to the brain by a rupture of one of the blood vessels, produced by a blow or fall. The jury, after a short consultation, returned a verdict of manslaughter against John Lee as principal, and Charles Chilcott and Albert Young as aiding and abetting in the fight. The whole of the men are in custody, Lee having been apprehended on Wednesday evening.

1863	15 July	London	father in court	CENTRAL CRIMINAL COURT, July 15. OLD COURT. (Before the LORD CHIEF BARON.) John Lee, Charles Chilcote and Albert Young, three good-looking young men of the gipsy tribe, surrendered to take their trial on an indictment charging them with the manslaughter of William Nicholls. The prisoners were also given in charge to the jury on the coroner's inquisition. Mr. Daly appeared for the prosecution, and the prisoners were defended by Mr. Orridge and Mr. Cooper. The evidence adduced on the part of the prosecution declared that two rival tribes of gipsies were located in the vicinity of "West Ham, in the pariah of Ilford, and that a broil had arisen between them, in consequence of a quarrel which arose between the mother of the deceased and the wife of the prisoner Lee, and a fight between the two women was terminated only on the understanding that the dispute should be settled by a conflict between the male relatives of the women, namely, the prisoner Lee and the deceased Nicholls. The contest took place in the Barking marshes, and it was shown to have been a "fair stand-up fight," in which the other prisoners, Chilcote and Young, acted as seconds, though the tribes, male and female, assisted in the general affray. In cross-examination it was elicited that the deceased was a practised pugilist, and that on the occasion of a former fight with another individual, he had been cautioned by the surgeon who had been necessarily called in to attend him, that be must not attempt to fight again, or the result must be fatal. It was further proved that the prisoner was a remarkably quiet and well-disposed young man, and that the deceased had declared that he would fight from sunrise to sunset before he would give up. Mr. Morris, surgeon, of West Ham, proved that he had been called upon to attend the deceased, but did not see him until three hours after his death. There were only slight bruises on the face and forehead, and blood was oozing from the left ear. On a post-mortem examination he had opened the head, chest, and abdomen of the deceased, and he found the viscera to be healthy, but there was a mass of extravasated blood on the brain. This extravasation, which was the immediate cause of death, might have been caused by a blow, a fall, or by excitement. The indications he saw were not sufficient, in his view, to justify the opinion that blows had been the proximate cause of death, and the surgeon would not say whether the death was occasioned by a blow or by excitement. The Lord Chief Baron told the jury he was clearly of opinion that instead of the prisoners being indicted for the manslaughter they ought to have been indicted for a breach of the law in having congregated for an illegal purpose. The Jury, after a moment's consultation, returned a verdict of Not Guilty in favour of all the prisoners, who were at once discharged.	The Evening Herald, 16 July 1863, 7

				watch. - Police-constable Wells stated that he took prisoner to his mother's house on the previous day, and Lee produced the watch in question from an old tree, and said he had found it. - Harriet Emery went to the house where prosecutor was on Tuesday night, and saw the prosecutor there in a beastly state of intoxication. He was in such a state that the watch might have fallen from his pocket. He did not see prisoner touch the prosecutor's watch. - Police-sergeant Brown stated that he was in company with Police-constable Wells, when the prisoner produced the watch from the tree. Prisoner told him he picked it up at the Royal Albert beerhouse, and Mrs. Emery and others saw him pick it up. - Prisoner elected to be tried by the bench, and pleaded guilty, being fined 21s or in default one month's imprisonment.
